

Third Quarter Units

Subject	Lessons Learned	Activities
Reading:	Stories Read:  Pumpkin Fiesta  The Day Jimmy's Boa Ate the Wash  How I Spent My Summer Vacation  Dear Mr. Blueberry  Cool Ali  The Emperor's Egg	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ Word Work with vocabulary</li> <li>✓ Weekly spelling tests</li> <li>✓ Guided reading groups</li> <li>✓ Read and think strategies</li> </ul>
Writing:	Writer's Workshop	We will continue to publish stories and work on revising and editing without guidance. We will also focus on minilessons that increase our knowledge about writing
Math:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Unit 7– Patterns and Rules</li> <li>➤ Unit 8 – Fractions</li> <li>➤ Unit 9 – Measurement</li> </ul>	Our math concepts get more difficult throughout third quarter. Each involves more time spent in class. We also focus getting the whole class into subtraction math facts.
Science:	Balance and Motion	Balance and Motion includes many hands-on activities and allows students to explore the ideas and concepts.
Social Studies:	Geography	We will learn to read maps and also learn about landforms that we find all around the world.
Miscellaneous:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Independent Reading Time</li> <li>➤ Cursive</li> <li>➤ Extended Response</li> </ul>	